Standards Regarding Disorderly Conduct

Adopted 2-22-91

Revised 2-28-97

The general purposes of this code are to establish a system of prohibitions and correctional measures to deal with conduct that unjustifiably and inexcusably causes harm or threatens harm to those public interests which the Lakeview Methodist Conference Center, its Board of Directors, Administrator, and Employee Staff are obligated to protect. To this end the provisions of this code are intended, and shall be construed, to achieve the above objective.

If a person commits an act under the following mental states: intentional, knowing, reckless, or with negligence, that person is responsible for his or her own conduct and for the conduct of others for whom he/she is responsible.

The following offenses are included in this category:

1. Criminal mischief, reckless damage, or destruction to property, structures, equipment, or vehicles, and theft (under $750.00).
2. Disorderly conduct or breach of the peace such as use of abusive, indecent, profane, or vulgar language or gestures; indecent exposure or public lewdness; or displays that tend to incite a breach of the peace; or creating by chemical or other means a noxious and unreasonable odor in a public place.
3. Possession or use of alcoholic beverages or controlled substances.
4. Possession of firearms, fireworks, illegal or prohibited knives, knuckles, clubs or instruments of any type that are specially designed, made, or adapted for the purpose of inflicting bodily injury.
5. Injury, reckless conduct, or terrorist threat that would indicate intent to do bodily harm to self or others.
6. Enticement or solicitation of a child.
7. Sexual harassment.
8. Other conduct that interrupts, disrupts, impedes, or otherwise interferes with a planned program.
9. The use of fire starter devices or pyrotechnics are prohibited unless used in organized programs which have been approved by Lakeview. In no case will open fires be allowed in or near structures or unprotected areas.

10. Cutting, breaking, or otherwise defacing trees, shrubs, or other native plants is prohibited unless part of a program of improvement approved by Lakeview.

Code of Procedure For Disorderly Conduct

Acting within the authority provided by its By-Laws, the Lakeview Methodist Conference Center establishes the following measures for violations of this code.

- I. Felony violations of the laws of this state, along with lesser offenses where the offender causes bodily injury to a person or destruction of property, will be reported to the law enforcement agency having jurisdiction of this area.
- II. Misdemeanor offenses or violations of Lakeview's General Policies may be reported to local law enforcement agencies. Correctional measures shall be imposed by Lakeview's Administrator (or in the administrator's absence, the Lakeview staff person in charge), the camp coordinator, and the director of the offender's group. These measures may in some cases require that the offender leave Lakeview Methodist Conference Center.
- III. The parents of a Camper shall be notified immediately by the Camper's Director and/or Coordinator in the presence of Lakeview's Administrator when any offense against or by a Camper is determined.

THIS CODE WILL APPLY EQUALLY TO REGISTERED CAMPERS, GUESTS, AND CASUAL VISITORS.
